

Sing, Sang, Sung

Don't try to memorize this. Just sing, sang, sung. When you hear, heard, heard it, you'll begin, began, begun to have fun. Stick with me and you'll see, saw, seen that you'll forget, forgot, forgotten you're studying. (Know what I mean?)

Let's meet, met, met, so we can speak, spoke, spoken.
I choose, chose, chosen rhymes to wake, woke, woken you up.
That's what's up! You'll never sleep, slept, slept. Let's keep, kept, Kept, on this road to success. I'll drive, drove, driven. Just get, got, got in and we'll go, went, gone. Together we can win, won, won.
It's really easy to do, did, done. Shoot, shot, shot - there's the gun-time to run, ran, run! Put, put, put your faith in me. I'll give, gave, given you the key to speak fluently. It's not for sale. You don't buy, bought, bought it. It's inside you. Once you find, found, found it, you can bring, brought, brought it right out. No doubt! But you won't do it alone. Come, came, come and we'll fly, flew, flown.

Everybody, everywhere. Just sing, sang, sung. When you hear, heard, heard it, you'll begin, began, begun to have fun. Stick with me and you'll see, saw, seen that you'll forget, forgot, forgotten you're studying. (Know what I mean?)

If you're afraid to speak English, I understand, understood, understood how you feel, felt, felt. It's why I think, thought, thought you should have, have, had a different attitude. Take, took, taken my advice and you'll get in the right mood. Like a virus that you catch, caught, caught: you've got Flu, short for Fluency. I send, sent, sent you love when I write, wrote, written these lyrics, so you can say, said, said the things you want people to hear. It's not something to dream, dreamt, dreamt. It's for real. Don't hide, hid, hidden. Express how you feel!

Don't try to memorize this. Just sing, sang, sung. When you *hear, heard, heard it you'll begin, began, begun to have fun.

Stick with me and you'll see, saw, seen that you'll forget, forgot, forgotten you're studying. (Know what I mean?)*

I'll tell, told, told you again, my friends: Don't fight, fought, fought it.
You'll hurt, hurt, hurt yourself. Instead, you ought to open your mind.
Don't shut, shut, shut it. Hate and negativity, cut, cut, cut them out of your life, so you can build, built, built and not fall, fell, fallen.
Make, made, made ambitious goals; you'll find your calling. If you just sit, sat, sat, you'll get beat, beat, beaten. At the table of life you need to eat, ate, eaten. Don't laugh. I'm not joking. Stress can break, broke, broken you down. So don't leave, left, left. Stick around.
It will pay, paid, paid to learn English. Don't delay! That's why I hit, hit, hit you with the rhythm this way.
